That an early newspaper "The Iowa City Investigator" was a journal devoted to Temperance?

That pearls were actually found in the Iowa River?

That Iowa City on April 17, 1865 held a duplicate funeral service for President Abraham Lincoln and it was so ordered that "all saloons and business houses closed" during the memorial hour?

That the city election of 1857 was on "shall colored men become voters with the same rights and protection as white men" and it was voted "No"?

That nearby vanished postoffices were named Gregg, Bon Accord, Danforth, Amish, Morfordsville, Copi, Nemora, Chase and Shoo Fly where the postmaster for half a century was named John Henry ?

That Vinnie Ream Hoxie ,our noted Iowa sculptress who before she was twenty years old modeled the statue of Lincoln that stands in the rotunda of the nation's capitol is buried at Arlington?

That the twenty-three original city streets as platted were made to hand down to posterity illustrious names and events? Van Buren for the eighth president, and Madison for a president, Jefferson also? Dubuque for Julien Du Buque who founded the city of Dubuque, and Harrison for another president?

That Iowa City once had three market squares, North Market, Center Market and South Market, all of which have ceased to exist?

That the hamlet " Pokertown" nearby, was really christened "Palestine" ?

That when Governor Lucas came from Bloomington with his two daughters, a day's journey on horseback, to view his new domain, he stopped at Matthew Ten Eyck's house and CLIMBED the ladder to the attic to rest ?

That when Iowa City was named the capitol city only three cabins were here?

That Iowa City had a "Boy Scout " troop in 1864 which drilled in Old South hall, shouldering muskets at home as their fathers were at war, and they helped drape Old Capitol in mourning when Lincoln died?

That just to the west of the village of Coralville encamped some thirteen hundred Mormon converts in 1856 preparatory to their trek to Salt Lake City?

That Iowa City has abounded in industries?

That in 1856 in a wee shanty on the shores of Ralston creek near Maiden Lane and Gilbert streets, a candle making plant was successfully operated? The glucose company the glass works, paper mills, the alcohol works, packing companies, chair and cabinet factories, perfume and toilet articles plants, glove factories, farm machinery manufacturing companies, jewelry firms, woven wire works, oatmeal concerns, oil mills, three big breweries, many flour mills and many minor plants, all these have at time prospered, employing upwards of a thousand persons and then have vanished?

That from a community of thriving business enterprises and many hotels, the city has changed its course to one of cultural development built around the University of Iowa?

That we have traversed a hundred years and may well believe that Iowa City, the seat of justice of Johnson County, was really predestined as an educational center rather than a commercial or rural center?

That of all that is good, Iowa provides the best and of Iowa City, it seems to be a survival of the fittest! Those who located Iowa City May 4, 1839 founded better than they even visioned!
